The December 17th meeting is a virtual meeting and participation is key to this lively and fun meeting. We will begin with a virtual tour of some lovely roses from a young and creative rose breeder, Dave Bang. This is a treat for the senses---colorful roses and music to make you smile while you sip your holiday drink.

Then we will take a break while members get ready to share some recipes of favorite cocktails or deserts. Beth Ann Mills and Judy Goss will coordinate the awarding of door prizes to the members who share with us their recipes of colorful libations and treats

Next, we will take another virtual tour of a rose garden we will plan to visit in spring 2022. You will want to see the lovely roses and garden beds of this Pennsylvania garden.

Finally , to complete this interactive December Holiday program, for those who really want to dream of roses and far off places, ---and maybe get a head start in planning a fabulous rose themed vacation, we will have some information from the Paul Zimmerman Rose website---the rose expert about English Manor Tours coming up next spring to the United Kingdom gardens.
